

STATUTORY “WILL” OF JOHN DOE

[This is the will the State of Oklahoma would provide for a married person who dies without a will]

I, JOHN DOE, of Anywhere, Oklahoma, according to Title 84, Ch 4 of the Oklahoma Statutes, make this my “will” by failing to have a will of my own choice.

1. I appoint my spouse as guardian of our minor children, if she survives me; but if my spouse does not survive me, I do not care who is the guardian for our children but hope that my next of kin will petition the court to have someone that we know and trust serve as guardian, otherwise the court can appoint anyone it chooses as guardian. Any guardian appointed shall be required to report to the court each year by written account on the guardianship and what was done for the necessary care of our children and I shall require that a bond be posted. Upon reaching 18 years of age, each child may take his or her inheritance and spend it however they wish.
2. I do not care to appoint an executor of my estate and hope that the court appoints someone of whom I approve.
3. I do not care to save any taxes when I die and know that as much as possible of my estate will go to the government in taxes instead of to my spouse and children.
4. If I am survived only by my spouse and have no children from either this or any previous marriage, then I leave to my spouse all of the property acquired by the joint industry of myself and my spouse as husband and wife during marriage, and an undivided 1/3 interest in the remaining estate, the remainder to my parents if they are alive and if they are not, then to my brothers and sisters and their children. Only if I have no relatives, will all of my estate go to my spouse.
5. If I am survived by my spouse and one or more children all of whom are children of my surviving spouse, then I leave to my spouse an undivided (1/2) interest in the estate, the remainder to my children to be divided equally among them. If this is a second marriage and my children are not my spouse’s children, then I leave to my spouse an undivided one-half (1/2) interest in the property acquired by our joint industry as husband and wife during marriage and an undivided equal part in the property not acquired by joint industry as husband and wife to be shared with each of my living children of if deceased their children.
6. If I die without a spouse, then I leave everything to my children and if any of my children predecease me I leave that child’s share to that child’s children in equal parts. If I die without a spouse and without any children, then I leave everything to my parents in equal shares. If my parents are not still living then I leave everything to my brothers and sisters in equal shares. If I die without a spouse, without children, without any parents, and without any siblings, but I have a living grandparent or living aunts and uncles, then I leave half of my estate to my paternal grandparents in equal shares, or to my paternal aunts and uncles if my paternal grandparents are dead, and I leave the other half to my maternal grandparents or their children if they are deceased.

7. If I die without children, without a spouse, without a parent, siblings, aunts and uncles, or grandparents then my estate passes to my next of kin. This may include a relative I really dislike and never had any intention of giving any portion of my estate.
8. If I die without any spouse or relatives then I leave everything to the State of Oklahoma.
9. If my spouse remarries and dies without a will, then her husband shall receive a child's share of her property, including any property she inherits from me and said spouse may spend it anyway he chooses without giving any of it for the support of our children.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have knowingly failed to make a different will of my choice after advice of counsel because I really did not care to go to all that bother; and I adopt by default, this as my "will."
